

Lakeway is a community with the feel of a small town but with all of the benefits of being located only 20 minutes from Austin, the Capital of Texas. Lakeway's amenities are abundant 3; The Lakeway Activity Center hosts many events for all ages, including summer recreation programs, holiday parades and a community tree-lighting, Easter egg hunt, Breakfast with Santa, monthly movie nights, skateboarding competitions, health fairs, arts and crafts bazaars, bridge tournaments, dance and fitness classes, and quilting groups. The activity center can also be rented for meetings, weddings, and special events.

The Lakeway City Park, with 64 acres of beautifully maintained parklands on the shores of Lake Travis, is home for various organized athletic leagues, fishing derbies, and events. The Lakeway Swim Center offers swim lessons, water aerobics, triathlon training, a youth swim team, and is a great place to host those summer parties. The Hills Country Club and Lakeway Golf Club unite to create a sprawling complex of private golf, tennis, fitness, swimming, and social amenities in Texas's beautiful Hill Country, and offer the hallmarks of private club tradition: camaraderie, lasting friendships, and extraordinary service.

Lakeway offers numerous fabulous restaurants, the Lakeway Inn, the Lakeway Marina, and several women's and men's clubs. The Lakeway Newcomers Club is a civic and social organization of new residents getting acquainted through monthly socials and various special events.

Whether your interests lie in sports, clubs, shopping, dining, or just that comfortable feeling of a warm, welcoming home in a finely appointed community, Lakeway, Texas can provide all you're searching for.

About the Estates of Lakeway:

- Secluded, close-knit, and warm community situated at the end of Lakeway Boulevard
- Private, gated community
- Estate-sized lots
- Only fifty homes
- Street picnics, women's luncheons, cocktail parties, dinner club, etc.
- Acclaimed Lake Travis ISD schools

